PUBLIC NOTICE

Friday 13 May 2022

The Border Management System (BMS) goes offline next 72 hours for upgrade.

To our valued Clients, Visitors and the General Public,

As of today, Friday 13th of May 2022 starting at 4:06pm the Border Management System (BMS), the primary database used to record movements at the borders, will go offline for the next 72 hours for maintenance and upgrade.

This scheduled BMS upgrade and maintenance would affect processing at our Headquarters in Waigani. However, the BMS at Jacksons International Airport, at Provincial Posts and at the Papua New Guinea Overseas Missions and Posts, the eVisa Portal and Online Payment gateway will be available.

The system will be restored on the afternoon of Sunday 15 May 2022.

For more information, you can reach us on telephone +675 3276 103 /107 or on email: itteam@immigration.gov.pg
